

Fraternal Leader Code of Conduct

Mission: Catholic Financial Life, a faith-based membership organization, puts Catholic values in action by serving God through serving others, providing financial security, and enhancing the quality of life. As a fraternal leader I promise to hold myself to the highest standard of conduct as I embrace the core values of the Society in all my actions by:

Keeping faithful to the gospel message of Christ and placing the good works of the Church at the center of my actions;

Promoting family values and keeping the safety and protection of children at the forefront of my work;

Respecting the needs and feelings of my fellow members, and recognizing the worth, dignity, and uniqueness of all persons;

Embracing my fraternal service with commitment and passion, and inspiring others with my example of enthusiastic support of the local chapter and of the Society;

Sharing my knowledge and expertise with fellow members, and suggesting innovative ideas that enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of the chapter;

Performing my volunteer duties with utmost integrity whether they be financial or fraternal in nature; and,

Being authentic as a Society member and honest in my dealings with others.

As a Catholic Financial Life Chapter Leader I agree to abide by this Code of Conduct, actively participate in achieving stated Society objectives, maintain confidentiality of information discussed at Society and chapter meetings, voice my opinions and support the consensus of chapter leaders and members, protect and conserve the Society's and chapter's assets, and be faithful to the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Chapter Policies and Procedures and Mission of Catholic Financial Life.
